

A GOOD RECIPE

Crowd each day with worthy efforts,
Ev'ry night the slate wipe clean;
From the highway and the hedges,
Knowledge, joy and beauty glean.

Be as mindful of a neighbor
As you'd have him be of you;
Stoutly guard your thoughts from evil,
Let your words be kind and true.

Sign and laugh – keep young in spirit –
Careful be of useless talk;
Form a comradeship with Jesus,
And beside Him proudly walk.

By Ellen M. Stewart (Alice Whitson Norton)

From: Girlhood Days Magazine
September 30, 1936 – Vol. 74, No. 51, Pg. 2