

EASTER MESSENGER

Oh, lilies, wondrous sweet and fair,
    Whene'er I see thy bloom,
I love to think you stood beside
    The Saviour's empty tomb!

I love to think your waxen cup
    Served as an Easter chime
That spread the message – "Jesus Lives" –
    That first sweet Easter time.

And when I look into your heart,
    As strange as it may be,
I see the gentle face of Him
    Who gave His life for me.

By Ellen Mary Stewart (Alice Whitson Norton)

From: Girlhood Days Magazine
March 28, 1937 – Vol. 75, No. 26, Pg. 2