

THE PEARL OF GREAT PRICE

Take all the lesser virtues I possess,
My good name place beneath a social ban;
But let me keep what some men value less,
Broad charity unto my fellow man.

By Beth Slater Whitson

From: Smith's Magazine
Vol. 8, No. 1, Pg. 121
October, 1908

AND

From: Singing Wires: A Book of Poems – Page 8
Bruce Humphries Publishing – Boston
Copyright 1958 – LOC Catalog No. 58-6821