

FRIENDS AND FOES

Were seeming friends but friends indeed,
Or plain, outspoken foes;
Of sympathy, we'd have less need,
To mitigate our woes.

By Beth Slater Whitson

From: Ainslee's Magazine
Vol. 19, No. 4, Pg. 160
May, 1907

AND

From: The North Carolina Christian Advocate
Vol. __, No. __, Pg. __
Date _____